TRIBUTE TO GRANT HEARD 30 MILES

Audible at Cincinnati

SPEAKS AT POINT PLEASANT

Notable Assemblage Honors
Memory of Former President

POINT PLEASANT — (Associated Press) — The nation turned today to this little hamlet snuggled at the base of the hills overlooking the Ohio river, to celebrate the one hundredth birthday of one of its presidents and great military leaders, Ulysses S. Grant.

Up the river from Cincinnati came a flotilla of river craft, bearing the president, the wife of the president, congressmen, high national officials, uniformed military officers, soldiers, state officials, men prominent in civil life and hundreds of other citizens. Bells rang, bells pealing joy and gladness. It moored at the landing and for the first time, the little village gave to the nation a president, it was honored with the presence of the president of the United States.

PRESIDENTIAL PARTY

In the presidential party were Attorney General Daugherty, George B. Christian Jr., secretary to the president, and Mrs. Christian; Brigadier General Charles E. Sawyer, the president's physician and Mrs. Sawyer; Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant; Mrs. Harry C. Corbin, E. B. McLean and Mrs. McLean; James Pendergast, Jesse Smith; Dr. George T. Harding, the president's father, and Mrs. Harding; George B. Christian Sr., and Mrs. Christian; Colonels J. A. Penn and T. Q. Ashburn, special aides to the president, and Congressmen Nicholas Longworth and Mrs. Longworth, A. D. B. Stephens and Mrs. Stephens and Charles C. Keenan, HARDING ADDRESSES CROWD.

After viewing the place where General Grant was born—only the house of which still exists here, the house having been moved to the state fair grounds at Columbus—President Harding delivered an address from a small platform erected near the site of the Grant home. Sound amplifiers made the president's voice audible to all in the village and to crowds that assembled in Log Cabin, in Cincinnati, thirty miles away.

"I sometimes wonder," the president said, "if the magnanimity of the dogged, persistent, unrelenting Grant in warfare—the unconditional surrender of Grant—would not be helpful in the world today. The great struggle, which we might reasonably designate the civil war of western civilization, and in which we so creditably and helpfully participated, left peoples and nations prostrate, hardly knowing which way to turn for restoration. I cannot help but believe that something of the spirit with which Grant welcomed victory, something of his eagerness to return to peaceful ways, would have speeded the restoration and hastened the return to prosperity and happiness, without which there can be no abiding peace."

MILITARY HERO

Harding paid tribute to Grant as "the military hero of the republic; a commanding figure in the military history of the world; the surpassing example of magnanimity of all times, the most striking example of the possibilities in American life; the confident and relentless commander in war, and the modest and sympathetic petitioner for peace after victory."

"We know his cherishment of peace, intensified by his intimate knowledge of the horrors of war," the president continued. "I can well believe he would have approved of all that the republic has so recently done in joining other nations in lifting the burden of armament and promoting understandings which make war less likely. I know he would have approved, because we have no independence, we have no one of our nationality for which we fought, but we have furthered the assurance of peace, which was the supreme yearning of his great brave heart."

"It is fifty-seven years since Grant's untimely death, with magnanimity. It is thirty-seven years since he laid down the weary autobiographer's pen and made his one and only surrender. His fame is secure."

WORLD STRIKE THREATENS

YOUTH DROWNS IN LAKE MERCER

Body of Lloyd Burris, 14, Recovered at Celina

WAS TRUANT FROM SCHOOL

Boy Scout Falls From Boat to Death in Water

CELINA — (Special) — The body of Lloyd Burris, 14, Boy Scout, a son of Ade Burris, was recovered from 10 feet of water a quarter of a mile offshore from Mercella park, in Lake Mercer here at 7 o'clock Wednesday night. His father, an employee at the buggy bow factory, was present when the body was found.

The boy was drowned late in the afternoon. Absenting himself from school, he entered a canoe owned by Swede Junod, a companion, and started out for a row.

ANGRY AT TEACHER

He was a pupil in the eighth grade of the Celina public school, was a bright scholar and had never before been reported for truancy, it is stated. He is reported to have become angry at his teacher and determined that he would not return to school.

A woman, whose name was not learned, told police late in the afternoon she had noticed a boy standing up in a small boat offshore from Mercella park late in the afternoon. When she heard him scream, she supposed that he had probably lost the oars from his boat and wanted help. She called others and returned in a few minutes to the shore, but the boat could not be seen.

BODY IS RECOVERED

Other boats put out for the point indicated by the woman. The canoe was found and in it were a boy's cap and coat. Young Burris had probably removed them to afford greater freedom in rowing.

First reports were that Harry Fields, son of James Fields, had been in the canoe with Burris and that he, too, had been drowned. However, he was located at his home.

Grappling hooks were used and the body was recovered from the lake bottom after several hours of work.

GALE'S BOND BIG

Sworn in Thursday as Postmaster; Security $44,000

Bond of A. E. Gale, Lima, postmaster, has been set by the postoffice department at $44,000, an increase of $30,000 over the amount formerly demanded as security.

In a letter received from the department by Gale, it was stated that increase of business in the Lima office made the amount of $14,000 bond inadequate. Postmaster Gale gave bond and was sworn in Thursday.

Some delay has been occasioned over the bond because of the increase. Some time ago Gale received his official papers and found that the amount set was $44,000, instead of $14,000.

Thinking that a mistake had been made, he sent the papers back, with an inquiry. He was informed that the increase is correct.

Gale expects to receive his commission before May 1.

A meeting of the Republican county central committee has been called to choose Gale's successor as chairman, it was announced Thursday.

PAPENFUSS MAY DRAW $10,000

State Restitution for Term in Prison Proposed

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — A movement is on foot by members of the Ohio legislature, it became known here today, to have the state make financial restitution to Carl Papenfuss, the 62-year-old Toledo man who was pardoned from the Ohio penitentiary last week by Governor Davis after having served six years of a life sentence for a crime which he did not commit.

Representative H. S. Atkinson, of Columbus, minority floor leader in the last general assembly, announced today that he favors such action and that a large number of members of the legislature are interested in the movement.

"The more payment of money cannot recompense him," said Representative Atkinson, "for the loss of liberty and anguish of soul, but as far as it can the state ought to see that he receives a comfortable sum. Ten thousand dollars is little enough to give this man who has served six years behind prison bars without cause."

Papenfuss was convicted of having attacked his daughter who was the star witness against him. The daughter recently admitted having testified falsely at the command of her mother, now dead, and Papenfuss was granted a pardon immediately. He returned to his home at Toledo, where the Wabash railroad gave him back his job he had held for thirty years before being arrested.

MINERS OFFERED FOREIGN AID

Importation of Coal May Bring Sympathetic Walkout

MESSAGE SENT FROM ROME

International Meeting Cables Greetings to Americans

(BY FRED L. JOHNSTON)

INDIANAPOLIS — (United Press) — Importation of British coal to break the strike of 650,000 American miners, will result in an appeal for sympathetic walkout of miners in Britain, according to an announcement from United Mine Workers headquarters here.

The announcement was made following receipt of a cablegram from the international executive committee of miners meeting now in Rome, which declared any suggestion from the United Mine Workers "will receive most sympathetic consideration."

ROME MESSAGE

The cablegram, signed by Frank Hodges, secretary of the committee, who is also secretary of the British miners federation, follows: "Executive committee of international miners meeting at Rome send you brotherly greetings and wish coal and break the backbone of the miners' union. Are recommending European miners refrain from working overtime while fight is proceeding."

"Any further suggestions from your committee will receive sympathetic consideration."

WILED THREATS

It was received by William E. Green, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers and followed veiled threats coming from no official source, to import European coal and break the backbone of the miners' union.

"If we find that British coal is taking the place of American coal, we may call upon the miners of Britain to refuse to supply those markets," Green said.

TEACHER MISSING

Indiana Girl Believed Kidnaped in Chicago

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Fearing their daughter Regina, a school teacher in Montana, has been kidnaped here, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams of Cannelburg, Ind., arrived in Chicago today to take up the search for the girl who has been missing since last Sunday.

A post card from Chicago mailed Sunday and a mysterious telephone call are the only clues, police said. The telephone call was to the girl's uncle, Frank O'Neill, here. "The voice had a foreign accent and Mr. O'Neill could distinguish only the name 'Williams,'" Mr. O'Neill said his niece had never been in a large city before and he feared she had fallen into a trap.

CARMEN MAY QUIT

Cleveland Motormen, Conductors Voting on Strike

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Union motormen and conductors of the Cleveland Railway Company night force are voting today on the company's proposal to cut wages five cents an hour, effective May 1. The new scale would be 50 cents an hour for new men, fifty-three for six month men and fifty-five for men in service a year or more.

The day crews voted unanimously last night to reject the proposal. The action of the men fully authorized them to call a strike.

Officials of the carmen's union this morning predicted the night crews would take similar action. President John J. Stanley, of the union, announced he would operate the cars with non-union men rather than recede from the pay scale offered.

"The men won't work after Sunday unless there is some explicit agreement with Mr. Stanley to continue wage negotiations," E. E. Brown, president of the carmen's union said.

3 BUILDINGS BURN

Fire Takes $30,000 Toll at Canal Winchester, Ohio

CANAL WINCHESTER — (Associated Press) — Three buildings in the central part of this town of 800 people, 12 miles southeast of Columbus, were destroyed by fire early this afternoon causing a loss estimated at $30,000. The fire was brought under control at 2 o'clock by engine company number eleven of Columbus.

The blaze originated in the hardware store of Wesley Kern and gutted that store, the opera house, Miller's furniture store, John Sponser's grocery and the grocery of Palsgrove and Ricketts.

Large Territory In Louisiana Is Under Water as the Mississippi River Levees Crumble—Many Towns In Rich Section are Inundated

Steamer of U. S. Fleet and All Other Available Power Boats Rushed to Scene—Thousands Made Homeless—49 Dead and Missing In Texas

NEW ORLEANS — (Associated Press) — A break in the Mississippi river levee at Poydras, about ten miles south of New Orleans, was reported today. A section of the levee about 100 feet long gave way, the report way, and approximately 350 families were fleeing before the waters. The break, unless checked, may cover a large area.

NATCHEZ, Miss. — (Associated Press) — Flood waters of the Mississippi river, pouring thru a rapidly widening crevasse in the Wecama levee, this morning reached and entered the town of Ferriday, La., four miles from the break.

The residents had received warning of the approach of the water in ample time to escape. The town of Vidalia, with a population of 2,000, is next in the path of the flood and is expected to be reached today.

Thruout Concordia and Catahoula parishes today the only means of communication was by boat. The last train to be operated left Ferriday last night with flood refugees. Practically all of the two parishes are covered by water and large tracts in Tensas, Franklin and Avoyelles parishes, which comprise a rich farming area devoted largely to cotton.

Jackson, a small mill village, is inundated. Vidalia is partially protected by a railroad embankment which has been sacked to serve as a levee.

TENTS ERECTED

Practically all livestock in the threatened area has been removed and the remainder was taken to the levees to be picked up by river boats. One hundred former service men of Natchez post of the American Legion erected tents today for a refuge camp here.

Six towns, including Vidalia, of about 2,000 population, and Ferriday of 600, are in the immediate path of the flood waters released when the break occurred suddenly at Wecama levee in Concordia parish late yesterday. It was certain early today that the inundation would cover all of that parish, a large part of Tensas, a part of Catahoula and possibly a part of Franklin and Avoyelles parishes.

Every available power boat at Natchez with the United States steamboat Tulea of the government fleet here, had hastened to the affected territory for flood relief work and arrangements were being made today to care for all refugees arriving here. Vidalia, about eight miles from Ferriday, the nearest town to the crevasse, is just across the river from Natchez. Reports from those towns said the break in the line had been anticipated and most of the people had prepared for it. Some did not believe the flood waters would reach a greater depth than four or five feet in the houses, in which case most of the residents were said to be prepared to walk out the flood.

49 DEAD AND MISSING

FORD WORTH, Texas — (Associated Press) — Trinity river was well within its banks this morning, the gauge showing a drop of 16 feet over night and now registering 17 feet. Street car service was restored this morning to all flooded suburbs. The dead and missing list is now 49.

Examination of the levee embankments along the Trinity river was started today by investigators of the levee board in an effort to determine whether the levee had been dynamited. The board announced the offer of $500 for information leading to the arrest of any person convicted of illegally dynamiting the levee system during the flood.

BREW MASTER DIES

CINCINNATI — Ernest Uhman, 56, brew master and inventor of the process for de-alcoholizing beer, died here.

U. S. TROOPS SENT TO PEKING

Will Protect American Interests During Civil Clash

BRITISH, FRENCH ALSO ACT

Will Dispatch Warships to the Chinese Waters

PEKING — (Associated Press) — Measures for the protection of American and other foreign interests here have been expedited in view of the threatened hostilities between the forces of General Chang Tso-Lin and Wu Pi-Fu. Train service to the coast has not been suspended but is irregular and the legations are prepared to order seizure of the railroad to keep it in operation, should serious interference develop. Thus far nothing but precautionary action has been taken but it is stated that an allied fleet will land troops if necessary, to keep communications open between Peking and the sea, in compliance with the protocol of 1901.

One hundred and seventy-five bluejackets and marines are expected to arrive today to reinforce the guard of the American legation. The men are from the United States cruiser Albany, which was ordered north from Shanghai. The Albany will join the Huron, flagship of the United States Asiatic fleet off Chinwangtao, northeast of Tientsin. The British and French legations also have requested that warships be sent to Chinese waters. The military activities of the opposing generals continue. Wu has concentrated 25,000 men at Pao-tung-fu, the capital of Chihli province, and Chang has 30,000 soldiers along the railroad from Peking to the sea.

8 WOMEN JAILED

WHITTEMORE IN RACE

AKRON — State Senator Frank E. Whittemore, Akron, announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for congressman from the 14th Ohio district.

PRESIDENT ULYSSES S. GRANT, MY FATHER, AS I REMEMBER HIS LIFE OF ACTIVITIES

Ulysses S. Grant Jr., namesake and second son of General Grant, is like his father, a man of two people. He is prominent in California, and is the owner of the U. S. Grant Hotel in San Diego which he named after his famous father. Grant is 70 years old.

By ULYSSES S. GRANT JR.
Son of the Late President of the United States

His unfailing calmness, his ability to think out every act before making it, and his remarkable memory, are the traits which stand out most clearly in my memory as I look back on the life of my father.

He was a splendid family man. We all loved him but with that affection was a respect, almost an awe, that nobody else has ever commanded from me.

Altho we were raised in the days of "spare the rod and spoil the child," he never laid the weight of his hand on one of us. He didn't need to. His slightest rebuke held a greater sting than the whip.

EXAMPLE OF REBUKE

I remember one day when we were living in Washington. We were preparing to go for a drive. The carriage was crowded and I was sitting on the box with the coachman. Without thinking of the consequences, I cracked the whip and only the good horsemanship of the coachman saved us from a runaway.

"That was thoughtless," was all my father said to me, and my rebuke has burned in my memory ever since.

I like to recall the love and joy-alter between my father and my mother. Mother loved to tell us of father during the days of his courtship, when he was second lieutenant fresh from West Point, and she was the daughter of a southern planter. "A beautiful young man," she called him.

She always said Grandmother

Dent predicted, even in the days of his young lieutenantcy, that he would be president of the United States.

"Julia," mother said grandmother told her, "that young man can explain politics so clearly I can understand the situation perfectly. I know he will be president of the United States."

Like all the Grants, father cared very little for music. He used to say all music was divided to him into selections, "Hail the Conquering Hero Comes," which he had heard so often he couldn't forget it, and the "other piece."

LIKED TO READ

He was fond of reading and could consume an inordinate amount of reading matter. Thruout all his life he retained his intense love for horses, which is the outstanding trait of his boyhood. He was always a little disappointed that his three sons didn't share his enthusiasm for good horsemanship.

"Fred," he would say, "knows very little about horses; Buck

(which was my nickname) knows nothing, and Jesse less than that."

FOND OF CARDS

I think he got the greatest relaxation, especially in his later years after he was president and we were living in New York, from a game of cards. He didn't care for chess, he could win too easily. He liked cribbage, but poker was his favorite game.

I remember many a game he had with Commodore Garrison, Senator Elkins and Senator Chaffee. They always played draw poker—this was over 50 years ago—and for a small limit. Mother didn't like to have him win the money of other men, altho they were much wealthier than he, and so when he came home from a game he would call up to mother: "Well, Julia, I'm home. I lost my money."

He always joked about mother's inability to play cards and loved to tell guests about the time he stacked her hand. They were having a friendly game and mother left the room for a minute. Father winked at the others and stacked her hand, giving her a royal heart flush.

"When mother returned," he would chuckle, "she picked up her hand and said, 'Give me four cards.'"

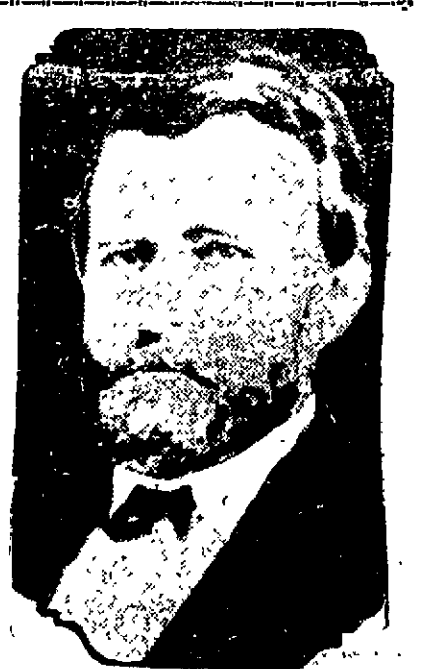

Father had a remarkable memory for names and dates.

My brother, Fred, and I usually read him the proof sheets of his "Memoirs," as they came from the printers. He would often stop us while he gave a word or a statement the most thorough study. He disliked a misstatement and always lost confidence in the person who made one.

During the last sad year of his life as he held death at bay while he struggled under almost unsurmountable difficulties to finish his book, he showed the same courage, the same patience and consideration for others that was always a part of him.

"Son," he would say to me, "no Grant is afraid to die."

He never let mother know that he knew he was afflicted with cancer and death was inevitable. Before her he was always cheerful, concealing his pain.

GENERAL ULYSSES S. GRANT

ROAD PLANS WILL BE APPROVED

Elimination of Grade Crossings Aids Allen-co Program

AUTO CLUB MEN BANQUET

State Speaker Present—Federal Help Assured

That recommendations made looking toward the elimination of grade crossings on the Allen-co state aid roads will be accepted by the Federal authorities, was predicted Wednesday night by H. F. Peters, of Columbus, speaking before the Lima Auto club banquet at the Elks Home.

Peters spoke instead of Leon C. Herrick, state highway commissioner, who was unable to attend the club's annual banquet. He was one of a group of state and automobile association officials who were guests of the Lima club.

"On every road," he said, "grades are encountered, but the hardest grade of all to cope with is the mis-information that goes out concerning the activities of the state highway department."

Allen-co TO GET MONEY "There is some impression that the state has taken money away from Allen-co. That is not so. Allen-co will get every cent apportioned."

Peters said the state is endeavoring to complete a primary and secondary highway system which will not only connect principal centers of the state, but county seats as well.

"By 1923," he predicted there will be paved roads connecting every county seat in Ohio with that in the adjoining county.

Statistics quoted by Peters show that Ohio is building 10,000 miles of roads; built 1,000 last year and will construct another 1,000 miles this year; that 68 per cent of the cost is paid by city taxpayers; that some $7,000,000 is available for the purpose.

Allen-co has more motor cars than China, club members were informed by A. G. Snow, Columbus, state auto license registrar. Snow said that 25 years ago there were four cars in the country. This year Ohio will probably register more than a million.

Cost of issuing a license in Ohio is 25 cents; less than in any other state in the union.

Allen-co in 1921 received $6,000 from the state license money amounting to $37,343.19. Lima received $25,776.

Raymond Beck, Cleveland, told of the accomplishments made in Ohio laws and road building by the 63 auto clubs of the state. Seven trans-state roads will be completed in Ohio during the coming year, he said.

MOTOR CLUBS GROWING

Ohio motor clubs number some 75,000 members. C. C. Jones, Columbus, secretary of the Ohio Automobile association stated.

Growth and activity of the Lima club was praised highly by visiting officials. With a rejuvenated organization Lima will rank among the most active clubs in the state. Membership in the past year, the annual report shows, has jumped from 276 to more than 500. A goal of 1,200 has been set by club officials.

More than 1,000 signs have been erected along roads and six large danger signs erected. The club has also distributed 1,000 road maps.

Directors of the auto club elected by balloting during the banquet are: O. L. DeWeese, Joe Harthorn, L. J. Hofmann, A. M. Herrett, J. T. Kaufman, Glen Webb, of Lima; J. C. Jones, Gomer, W. J. Stefanie, Delphos; Jaul Cochran, Spencerville.

DURR, FOUND GUILTY. MAY SEEK NEW TRIAL

A verdict of guilty was brought against J. W. Durr, former proprietor of a S. Main-st. cafe, in criminal court, on a charge of violating the Crabbie Act.

Testimony introduced by Captain George Strick and Patrolman B. F. Watkins showed that in the act of arresting Durr on S. Main-st., he slipped into a nearby cafe for a moment to talk with the proprietor. Police followed and alleged they saw him place a bottle of "whisky" behind a box, which according to a chemist, tested 53.72 per cent alcoholic content.

Durr had been arrested for passing a worthless check on Judge Emmett J. Jackson for $100 in payment of a fine for a liquor offense in March.

Sentence was deferred to allow the usual time to file notice for a new trial.

SPENCERVILLE LID MAY BE LIFTED BY COUNCIL

Spencerville will see its fourth "blue law" Sunday, it was indicated Thursday.

The town council which was to have assembled Wednesday night, failed to act because a quorum was not present. Mayor C. C. Laman was out of the city. It was learned.

Council is slated to take a full out of the "blue laws" at the first meeting in May, a week hence. Feeling in the village, on the surface is apparently calm.

But beneath the surface, liberals say, a veritable inferno is seething. Fictitious shows, cafes and tobacco shops may open their doors and run full blast on the coming Sunday. It was indicated Thursday. Council is expected to lift the lid when it meets at the next regular session.

YOUTHFUL TRIO TURNED OVER TO JUVENILE COURT

Three alleged youthful offenders, picked up by police Thursday, were turned over to juvenile authorities. The most serious of the alleged misdoers is charged against Claire Lettler, 14, of 1121 Hill-st. Police say he stole a motorcar from an auto belonging to H. W. Frank, 230 S. Elizabeth-st.

Clyde Pugh, 17, of 122 Lafayette-st., was caught at coal stealing and Howard, 17, of 850 W. Vine-st., was train riding, police say.

REBELLION IS THREAT BY TED

Ted is losing patience with the weatherman and is setting his man hunting spitsnoodle on the trail of the party guilty of perpetrating such weather conditions at this period of the year.

Cloudy and cool with rain in south-west portion tonight is the forecast. Rain again Friday.

Nice outlook! But what cannot be cured must be endured.

DISASTER NOT DUE TO RAIL NEGLECT

Utilities Commission Passes on Crash at Painesville

COLUMBUS—(United Press.)—The grade crossing disaster at Painesville March 3, which cost the lives of 18 persons, passengers in a motor bus, hit by a New York Central train, cannot be charged to failure of the railroad to comply with state laws and the utilities commission can take no action, according to findings of the commission announced today by Chairman George T. Peor.

"The evidence discloses that the railroad had maintained for some time a watchman at this crossing and that the regular watchman was on duty at the crossing the night of the accident and attempted to flag the bus," the commission's findings state. "The evidence is conflicting as to whether or not he attempted to flag the bus in time to stop it before it came upon the tracks and this becomes a question for a jury to decide. The evidence also discloses that the headlight on the engine was burning and that a whistle had been sounded for the crossing."

"The commission is convinced from the testimony that there was no neglect or violation of the law (relative to safety devices) which would require the commission to make a report to the attorney general. The commission, however, is of the opinion that the protection heretofore maintained at this crossing is inadequate and further protection to the public should be installed, and that properly operated gates would afford ample and efficient protection. Therefore a proper proceeding will be initiated in that behalf."

Chairman Peor pointed out that the commission's power in such cases is limited and that its findings by law are limited as to whether any active laws of the state had been violated, such as the maintenance of proper safety devices on the train and protective devices.

"The commission is convinced from the testimony that there was no neglect or violation of the law (relative to safety devices) which would require the commission to make a report to the attorney general. ### YOUTHFUL TRIO TURNED OVER TO JUVENILE COURT

Three alleged youthful offenders, picked up by police Thursday, were turned over to juvenile authorities. The most serious of the alleged misdoers is charged against Claire Lettler, 14, of 1121 Hill-st. Police say he stole a motorcar from an auto belonging to H. W. Frank, 230 S. Elizabeth-st.

Clyde Pugh, 17, of 122 Lafayette-st., was caught at coal stealing and Howard, 17, of 850 W. Vine-st., was train riding, police say.

ALLEN-CO LAGS IN HIGHWAY WORK

Is Outstripped by a Majority of Other Ohio Counties

MACADAM TO BE USED HERE

Most All Other Units Adopt Heavier Construction

Allen-co lagged behind a majority of other counties in northwest Ohio in the sale of state aid road contracts for the coming summer, according to information given out by Grover Clement, district engineer.

Two contracts have been closed for roads in Allen-co and there is one other contract pending. Defiance, Fulton and Williams-co all have their 1923 road programs farther along.

Four contracts have been sold in Defiance-co for about 12 miles of roads. Fulton-co has six stretches upon which construction will soon start. In Williams-co, five contracts are sold. Paulding and Putnam-co have sold two contracts each and Henry-co one stretch of five miles.

While Allen-co will use macadam type of construction, other counties in the district are going in for heavier and more expensive road construction.

Three of the four roads to be constructed in Defiance-co are to be built of re-inforced concrete, which road experts say is more durable than macadam. The cost per mile is much greater, however.

Pulton-co is going in for all concrete on the 10 miles of roads already sold.

On Putnam-co roads sold to date, Kentucky rock asphalt is specified. Paulding-co will also build several miles of concrete highway.

On account of the greater expense of the other types, Allen-co commissioners are favoring macadam, they say. At least it is the type that has been specified on the roads sold up to date.

Allen-co originally planned construction of 35 miles of state aid roads in 1922. Something less than two miles was paved of the program by the state highway department, leaving a fraction better than 33 miles.

Contracts for less than one third of this amount have been let.

FIDO TRESPASSES AND THEREBY WAS CREATED A NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Fido got away from his mistress and trespassed upon the property of a neighbor, thus being the unwitting cause of a neighborhood row that resulted in Elmer Stepleton, 39, of 1534 S. Central-av., being charged with disorderly conduct in criminal court, by Mrs. Mabel Curl, of the same address.

She called to the dog and Stepleton is alleged to have mimicked her, whereupon "tart" phrases were bandied back and forth. She filed an affidavit and Stepleton was arrested Wednesday.

He pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct before Judge Emmett Jackson, who fined him $10. The case was held open, however, pending good behavior. Doubling of the fine and a workhouse sentence will be meted out in case of a recurrence, Judge Jackson said.

Stepleton was to file an affidavit against Mrs. Curl similar to one he was taken up on, but it was not done.

Warning was given by Stepleton that he would make application to have Mrs. Curl placed under a peace bond in one of the local justice of the peace courts.

GERMAN MARKETS COLLAPSE

Panicky Situation Blamed on Increased Mark Value

WORSE CONDITIONS SEEN

Revolt of Working People is Believed Inevitable

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK — (Special) — What is going to happen in Germany? What is happening in Germany?

Strange, contradictory, ominous things are happening at this moment. And it looks as if still more unsettling things may happen before long.

This week there has been a violent panicky collapse in Germany's security markets. The reason popularly adduced is that the value of the mark has so substantially increased that securities are worth a smaller number of marks than formerly.

Yet, the increase in the output of marks has been stupendous, staggering, during recent weeks. The expansion exceeded a billion marks every day for some little time. Germany now thinks nothing of pouring from its printing presses in one week as many paper marks as the total in existence before the war.

And yet the quotation for the mark has been rising quite a large percentage. It touched 44-100 of a cent in New York on Monday, whereas less than a month ago it was below 30-100. Here is a raise of fifty percent in half as many business days!

According to the law of economics the more any currency is inflated, the less value that currency becomes. We have seen this law working out in Russia, Austria, Hungary and other countries. We had also seen it working out in Germany. But now apparently, the greater the speed of Germany's printing presses the more pronounced becomes the recovery in the value of the product.

But there is an end to this kind of madness. In my humble opinion Germany is drifting towards unpleasant happenings.

America, Britain and other countries have been expressing terrible alarm over Germany's ability to produce and export goods at fantastically low prices. And it is true that, measured by dollars or pounds sterling, wages and costs in Germany are ridiculously low—the average wage paid by one American-owned factory in Berlin is today $2.50 per week.

But these low costs are possible only because the working people of Germany are being so grossly underpaid that a revolt is inevitable if existing conditions are allowed to continue. Wages in Germany have not increased one half or one quarter as rapidly as have the prices of the things the wages try to buy. The privations now being suffered by many classes in Germany, including professional people, are beyond the imagination of the majority of people in our own favored land.

But this can't go on forever. It can't go on very much longer. The great mass of the people in Germany, as in any other country, must be able to earn enough to subsist, or trouble finally bursts out. The rank and file of the German people have been extraordinarily docile under the hardships they have been suffering. But when they awaken to a realization of what is what, they will surely look over the traces. They are not being paid a living wage so far they have felt that their troubles arose from high prices, not from depreciation of the mark. The populace still cherishes faith in their beloved mark. It is not it that has gone crazy, they reason; it is prices.

Sooner or later it will have to be explained to the German people that their faith in their mark has been misplaced, that they have been deluded by their statesmen, that the mark they know no longer exists, that the marks of today are almost worthless, and that they must be so branded by the government.

Other countries will still have to reckon with German competition in the future. But Germany cannot very much longer produce at the unreasonably low costs now ruling. The present position is wholly artificial, wholly unsound, wholly untenable.

Meanwhile, however, you can expect to see American corporations and the business interests of other progressive countries set up plants in Germany to take care of continental business. As one American executive recently emphasized to me, "We cannot pay $6 a day wages and turn out goods which can compete with similar goods made in Germany by fifty cents-a-day labor."

Whether the quotation for marks fluctuates upwards or downwards, don't conclude that things can go on smoothly in Germany until a major operation has been performed.

OLD-TIME REVIVAL TO OPEN AT MEMORIAL HALL

R. S. Lindsay, evangelist, will open old-time revival meetings at Memorial Hall, beginning Sunday night and continuing every night for several weeks, save on Saturday, it was announced Thursday. Subject for Sunday night's sermon will be: "The Second Coming of Christ; We are Nearing That Great Event." Lindsay is a member of a league of evangelists, with headquarters in Washington, D. C. The series of meetings is in the interest of no particular creed, he says, but is designed to turn men to the teachings of the Bible.

Associated with the evangelist is Mrs. Nellie Pressnell of Findlay, evangelistic singer. A group of gospel workers will also aid. Stereophonic song service will be conducted each night, preceding the sermon.

EXPERTS WILL STUDY STATIC THIS SUMMER

Radio fans may expect to hear of new chief of the U. S. signal corps, has been making a special study of radio disturbances. He has made several experiments at army stations in Texas, where he found much static interference on which to base his studies.

During the warm days in the northern part of the country, Dr. Cohen will continue his studies and expect to perfect a plan by which atmospheric interference can be eliminated. He is said already to have invented an instrument which will eliminate "strays," or foreign disturbances.

Engineers for private radio manufacturing and broadcasting firms also report activity in the study of static elimination. They are only awaiting the dog days, when static will be so troublesome as to make it almost impossible to receive signals. Then will be the ideal time for their experiments.

VARIOMETER IS AID TO SET

(BY R. L. DUNCAN)
Director, Radio Institute of America Here is a way of increasing the power of a crystal detector set without using a vacuum tube.

Substitute a variometer in the aerial circuit for the loose coupler. Many amateurs have done this and have received telephone and spark signals from a distance twice as great as before.

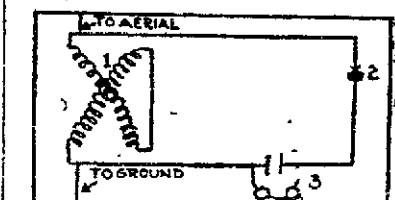

The variometer represented by No. 1 in the diagram, may be constructed as previously explained or may be purchased for about $4.50.

A variable condenser may be connected in the aerial circuit. This condenser should be of 23 plates or .0005 microfarads capacity.

No. 2 in the drawing is the crystal detector of galena. Always bear in mind that you will probably have to try several pieces of the mineral before obtaining one that is suitable for radio wave detection.

No. 3 is the head phones shunted by a small fixed condenser. These phones should be 2000 to 3000 ohms resistance.

The republic has not forgotten and will not forget.

NEW REPUBLICS

"What of the republic itself? It will not be unseemly to say that American example and American conception of justice and liberty since then have influenced the world little less significantly than Grant's service to the Union-shaped the course of our land."

"A score of new republics have unfurled their flags and democracy has opened new avenues of liberty and made justice more secure. Civilization meanwhile has made such advances that there has seemed a divinity pointing the way. And yet that very civilization, more advanced than entrenched, was threatened by the World War, and in war's aftermath established order has been assaulted and revolution has threatened throughout the world. In our own land the enemies within have been more threatening than those without. Greed and anarchy have menaced. But a calm survey gives every reassurance. Twenty centuries of modern civilization could not have been built on foundations which are false. A century and a half of gratifying American achievement dates from the sacrifices of the founding fathers, and their firm structure was preserved by the patriots whom Grant commanded, and will be held secure by the patriotic citizenship of the republic today and the grateful Americans of the morrow."

Arriving in Cincinnati at 9 o'clock, the president and Mrs. Harding and other distinguished guests were tendered a reception at the Hotel Gibson before embarking for the river voyage. Luncheon was served on the government boat Cayuga on which the presidential party made the journey. Returning to Cincinnati in the evening, the president and Mrs. Harding and a few invited guests will dine at the home of Charles P. Taft, after which the return trip to Washington will be started.

DISARMING WAVE SPREADING

Steps Taken to Include All Latin-America

CHILE LEADS IN MOVEMENT

May be Taken up at Conference in Santiago

(By A. L. BRADFORD)
WASHINGTON — (United Press) — First steps have been taken to extend limitation of armament to Latin-America. It was learned authoritatively today.

An agreement between the republics from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn to limit armament is about to be proposed by Chile and already the plan has been informally discussed.

The Chilean proposal is that the question of limitation of armament be taken up at the fifth Pan-American conference to be held at Santiago next March.

If the proposal is approved the Santiago conference will be in effect another international disarmament conference.

The Chilean foreign office, it was learned, has communicated to the Chilean embassy here the desire of that government to initiate a discussion of plans for limitation of armament in Latin-America at the Santiago conference. The ambassador, Don Beltran Mathieu, has been instructed to sound out the question here.

Mathieu has already discussed the plan informally with Dr. L. S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union. It is understood that Mathieu will shortly propose that the question of extending limitation of armament to Latin-America be included in the agenda for the conference.

NEGOTIATIONS ON

If the commission in revision of program for the conference approves the inclusion of limitation of armament in the agenda, it will then put before the governing board of the Pan-American Union and with unanimous favorable action by that body consideration of the question will be assured. These negotiations are expected to be completed within the next three weeks.

The present views of the Chilean government are that limitation of armament in Latin-America should be achieved by a reduction and limitation of the expenditures by the various countries, this method being preferred to a ship by ship or gun by gun reduction and limitation.

It is not the intention to include the United States in any Pan-American agreement on limitation of armament for fear it would upset this country's relations with the other powers in the Washington naval disarmament treaty.

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va., where John Brown was tried and hanged in 1859, to day is again the scene of an important trial.

MINERS ON TRIAL
You have read about John Brown in history. He was one of the leaders of the abolitionists—people who believed slavery should be done away with. He died for this cause.

The present trial at Charles Town is that of several hundred union miners and their friends who marched from Kanawha-co, W. Va., across Boone-co, and to the border of Logan-co, where they were stopped.

On this march the miners took part in several battles with sheriffs, deputies, guards and police. Since both miners and authorities were armed, lives were lost on both sides. The miners say they started this armed march to protest against unfair treatment by mine owners and the guards these men employed. They say they did not wish to kill anyone.

Now these miners are being tried in the same court house in which John Brown was tried. They are charged with treason, murder, conspiracy and other offenses.

Treason means an act of enmity against the government, or failure to recognize one's allegiance to the government.

THE GENOA CONFERENCE

When Germany and Russia were invited to the Genoa economic conference, you will remember, they were locked upon as outcast nations. The other countries expected them to take anything the other countries might be willing to give them.

But Germany and Russia—especially Russia—have become the most important nations at the conference and the whole outcome seems to depend on what these nations do.

The Russians are now demanding cancellation of all their war debts and a big international loan.

This the allies and the other countries of Europe probably will not permit. They have no money to lend to Russia.

They are, however, trying to give Russia materials to build railways, provided Russia allows them to send men to Russia to see to it that these materials are used for no other purpose.

Russia probably will not consent to this, for its leaders say that permitting such a thing would violate Russia's sovereignty.

Sovereignty means a nation's right to run its affairs without interference from outside powers.

CHINA'S CIVIL WAR

Civil war is now raging in China. Two armies are overrunning the interior provinces and are getting lined up for a great battle.

One leader is General Cheng Tso-hin, military commander of the Manchurian armies. His opponent is General Wu Pei-fu, military master of Central China.

General Chang Tso-hin has in his army 95,000 men. They are quartered in three places—in the province of Chih-li, north of Tien-tsin, and at a point 20 miles south of Tien-tsin and another point 12 miles southwest of Peking.

General Wu Pei-fu has 75,000 men. Some of them are at Pao Ting-fu in the province of Chih-li, others are in the province of Honan, while still more are advancing from the province of Shen-si.

If you will get out your map of China you can find all these places. This warfare shows the unsettled condition of affairs within China. China, one of the world's oldest empires, is having trouble in getting its people used to the republican form of government, which seems so natural to us in the United States.

SOUTH HIGH JUNIOR CLASS PLEASURES WITH COMEDY PRESENTATION

"Patty Makes Things Hum," a comedy in three acts, by Carolyn Draper Gilpatrick, was very capably presented by the Junior class of South high school, Wednesday evening, in Central high school auditorium. The play was originally written for an eastern dramatic society and made its initial appearance in Allington, Mass.

The theme of the story centered around Patty, a boarding school girl, very well portrayed by Cecile Leedy, who, having been expelled from school for a trivial offense, goes to the home of her married sister, Mrs. Greene, successfully depicted by Pauline Wagonman. Following the arrival of the mischievous Patty, many complications, and unexpected events take place. Hyacinth, the loquacious colored maid, (Mary Sprague) was the principal humor provider for the evening.

Other members of the cast included Robert Berger as Captain Brailwaite; Robert Poling as Captain Little; Alvin Zuriluh as Mr. Greene; Robert Craig as Mr. Smith; Sarah Rigdon as Mrs. Smith; Lucie Olson as Helen Brailwaite and Dorothy Smith as Hope Danbar.

Miss Helen Meredith was the director of the play with Miss Pauline Jones as her assistant.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y. suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless, unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally composed a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allentonia, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous results. He has therefore instructed his disciples everywhere to dispense Allentonia with the understanding that if the first trial does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.—Adv.

WONDERFUL FOR SICK STOMACHS

That's what every stomach sufferer says after taking one or two doses of Dr. Oth's Great Stomach Prescription.

Everyone who tries it willingly acknowledges that it does cure indigestion and many other stomach ailments almost instantly.

Read this letter from Wm. Starkey, Rock Creek, Ohio:
"I was sick for several years, went to hospital after getting no relief from doctors and many remedies that I tried. Unable to work, and confined to the house, I was advised to try Dr. Oth's Stomach Remedy. I had no faith in anything any more, but I tried it and to my happy surprise, it did me good. I am now perfectly well and for the months have been working every day in the blacksmith shop, eating everything I want and in perfect health. It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. Oth's stomach Remedy."

Money back if Dr. Oth's Stomach Remedy does not do what we say it will and remember that this remarkable remedy is the prescription of a practicing physician who used it with great success in exactly such cases as yours during a period of 60 years. ## ROAD PLANS WILL BE APPROVED

AUTO CLUB MEN BANQUET

State Speaker Present—Federal Help Assured

That recommendations made looking toward the elimination of grade crossings on the Allen-co state aid roads will be accepted by the Federal authorities, was predicted Wednesday night by H. F. Peters, of Columbus, speaking before the Lima Auto club banquet at the Elks Home.

Peters spoke instead of Leon C. Herick, state highway commissioner, who was unable to attend the club's annual banquet. He was one of a group of state and automobile association officials who were guests of the Lima club.

"On every road," he said, "grades are encountered, but the hardest grade of all to cope with is the mis-information that goes out concerning the activities of the state highway department."

Allen-co TO GET MONEY
"There is some impression that the state has taken money away from Allen-co. That is not so. Allen-co will get every cent. appropriated."

Peters said the state is endeavoring to complete a primary and secondary highway system which will not only connect principal centers of the state, but county seats as well.

"By 1923," he predicted there will be paved roads connecting every county seat in Ohio with that in the adjoining county.

Statistics quoted by Peters show that Ohio is building 10,000 miles of roads; built 1,000 last year and will construct another 1,000 miles this year; that 68 per cent of the cost is paid by city taxpayers; that some $7,000,000 is available for the purpose.

Allen-co has more motor cars than China, club members were informed by A. G. Snow, Columbus, state auto license registrar. Snow said that 25 years ago there were four cars in the country. This year Ohio will probably register more than a million.

Cost of issuing a license in Ohio is 25 cents; less than in any other state in the union.

Allen-co in 1921 received $1,000 from the state license money amounting to $87,845.10. Lima received $25,276.

Raymond Beck, Cleveland, told of the accomplishments made in Ohio laws and road building by the 63 auto clubs of the state. Seven trans-state roads will be completed in Ohio during the coming year, he said.

MOTOR CLUBS GROWING
Ohio motor clubs number some 75,000 members. C. C. Jones, Columbus, secretary of the Ohio Automobile association stated.

Growth and activity of the Lima club was praised highly by visiting officials. With a rejuvenated organization Lima will rank among the most active clubs in the state. Membership in the past year, the annual report shows, has jumped from 276 to more than 500. A goal of 1,200 has been set by club officials.

More than 1,000 signs have been erected along roads and six large danger signs erected. The club has also distributed 1,000 road maps.

Directors of the auto club elected by balloting during the banquet are: O. L. DeWesse, Joe Hartman, L. J. Hofmann, A. M. Herrett, J. T. Kaufman, Glen Webb, of Lima; J. C. Jones, Gomer; W. J. Stehle, Delphos; Jaul Cochran, Spencerville.

DURR, FOUND GUILTY, MAY SEEK NEW TRIAL

A verdict of guilty was brought against J. W. Durr, former proprietor of a S. Main-st. cafe, in criminal court, on a charge of violating the Crabble Act.

Testimony introduced by Captain George Strick and Patrolman B. F. Watkins showed that in the act of arresting Durr on S. Main-st., he slipped into a nearby cafe for a moment to talk with the proprietor. Police followed and alleged they saw him place a bottle of "whisky" behind a box, which, according to a chemist, tested 58.72 per cent alcoholic content.

Durr had been arrested for passing a worthless check on Judge Emmett J. Jackson for $100 in payment of a fine for a liquor offense in March.

Sentence was deferred to allow the usual time to file notice for a new trial.

SPENCERVILLE LID MAY BE LIFTED BY COUNCIL

Spencerville will see its fourth "blue law" Sunday, it was indicated Thursday.

The town council which was to have assembled Wednesday night, failed to act because a quorum was not present. Mayor C. C. Laman was out of the city. It was learned.

Council is slated to take a fall out of the "blue laws" at the first meeting in May, a week hence. Feeling in the village, on the surface is apparently calm.

But beneath the surface, liberals say, a veritable inferno is seething. Picture shows, cafes and tobacco shops may open their doors and run full blast on the coming Sunday. It was indicated Thursday. Council is expected to lift the lid when it meets at the next regular session.

YOUTHFUL TRIO TURNED OVER TO JUVENILE COURT

Three alleged youthful offenders, picked up by police Tuesday, were turned over to juvenile authorities. The most serious of the alleged misdemeanors is charged against Claire Lettler, 14, of 1221 Hill-st. Police say she stole a motorcar from an auto belonging to H. W. Frank, 230 S. Elizabeth-st.

Clyde Rush, 17, of 122 Lafayette-st., was caught at coat stealing and Ralph Howard, 17, of 860 E. W. H. was train riding, police say.

REBELLION IS THREAT BY TED

Ted is losing patience with the weatherman and is setting his man hunting spitsnoodle on the trail of the party guilty of perpetrating such weather conditions at this period of the year.

Forecasts of rain and cold are too frequent and are too often, the little hairy-headed attendant upon his daily feature believes and he is "ready to stage a rebellion, altho it is considered of little avail, so far as results are concerned."

Cloudy and cool, with rain in southwest portion tonight is the forecast. Rain again Friday.

Nice outlook. But what cannot be cured must be endured.

DISASTER NOT DUE TO RAIL NEGLIGENCE

Utilities Commission Passes on Crash at Painesville

COLUMBUS—(United Press.)—The grade crossing disaster at Painesville March 3, which cost the lives of 18 persons, passengers in a motor bus, hit by a New York Central train, cannot be charged to failure of the railroad to comply with state laws and the utilities commission can take no action, according to findings of the commission announced today by Chairman George T. Poor.

"The evidence discloses that the railroad had maintained for some time a watchman at this crossing and that the regular watchman was on duty at the crossing the night of the accident and attempted to flag the bus."

"The commission is conflicting as to whether or not he attempted to flag the bus in time to stop it before it came upon the tracks and this becomes a question for a jury to decide. The evidence also discloses that the headlight on the engine was burning and that a whistle had been sounded for the crossing."

"The commission is convinced from the testimony that there was no neglect or violation of the law (relative to safety devices) which would require the commission to make a report to the attorney general. The commission, however, is of the opinion that the protection heretofore maintained at this crossing is inadequate and further protection to the public should be installed, and that properly operated gates would afford ample and efficient protection. Therefore a proper proceeding will be initiated in that behalf."

Chairman Poor pointed out that the commission's power in such cases is limited and that its findings by law are limited as to whether any active laws of the state had been violated, such as the maintenance of proper safety devices on the train and protective devices.

Cost of issuing a license in Ohio is 25 cents; less than in any other state in the union.

Allen-co in 1921 received $1,000 from the state license money amounting to $87,845.10. Lima received $25,276.

Directors of the auto club elected by balloting during the banquet are: O. L. DeWesse, Joe Hartman, L. J. Hofmann, A. M. Herrett, J. T. Kaufman, Glen Webb, of Lima; J. C. Jones, Gomer; W. J. Stehle, Delphos; Jaul Cochran, Spencerville.

TWO TAKEN AS OWNERS OF STILL MAY BE TAKEN BEFORE FEDERAL COURT

Frank Mangan, 46, and Leo Holler, 26, arrested Wednesday night for alleged possession of a liquor may be given flings in federal court.

Police say a two-part home distiller several gallons capacity was found at their place of residence, 1424 S. Union-st., when Officers McCoy, Kipker, Taylor, Blair and Hargrove raided the place. No liquor was found, the policemen declared.

Mangan and Holler were not arraigned Thursday, pending a conference between Police Judge Jackson, Chief of Police Lanker and City Solicitor Landis on the possibility of sending the pair to Toledo.

Heretofore only a few cases of Crabble Act violations were referred to federal jurisdiction from Lima and Allen-co.

SOBS WIN FREEDOM FROM TRAFFIC CHARGE

Sobs won W. C. Boophy, 26, of 621 N. Metcalf-st., his freedom Thursday in criminal court from a charge of violating the traffic code by parking his machine without lights, in Elizabeth-st.

Coupled with several perfectly good alibis, he offered a show of emotion and escaped the customary $1 fine.

SMALL LOOT SECURED IN THREE ROBBERIES

Three packages of scrap tobacco comprised the loot of thieves who entered the Delong restaurant, 430 S. Main-st., Wednesday night. A lock was broken off a desk in a second hand store next door, but nothing was taken. Entrance was gained thru a rear transom.

Transom workers also entered the Grand Union Tea company store, 217 W. High-st., but police say nothing was taken.

ALLEN-CO LAGS IN HIGHWAY WORK

Is Outstripped by a Majority of Other Ohio Counties

MACADAM TO BE USED HERE

Most All Other Units Adopt Heavier Construction

Allen-co lagged behind a majority of other counties in northwest Ohio in the sale of state aid road contracts for the coming summer, according to information given out by Grover Clement, district engineer.

Two contracts have been closed for roads in Allen-co and there is one other contract pending. Defiance, Fulton and Williams-co all have their 1923 road programs farther along.

IN OTHER COUNTIES

Four contracts have been sold in Defiance-co for about 12 miles of roads. Fulton-co has six stretches upon which construction will soon start. In Williams-co, five contracts are sold. Paulding and Putnam-co have sold two contracts each and Henry-co one stretch of five miles.

While Allen-co will use macadam (type of construction) other counties in the district are going in for heavier and more expensive road construction.

Three of the four roads to be constructed in Defiance-co are to be built of re-inforced concrete, which road experts say is more durable than macadam. The cost per mile is much greater, however.

Fulton-co is going in for all concrete on the 10 miles of roads already sold.

On Putnam-co roads sold to date, Kentucky rock asphalt is specified. Paulding-co will also build several miles of concrete highway.

HOLD TO MACADAM

On account of the greater expense of the other types, Allen-co commissioners are favoring macadam, they say. At least it is the type that has been specified on the roads sold up to date.

Allen-co originally planned construction of 35 miles of state aid roads in 1922. Something less than two miles was paved off the program by the state highway department, leaving a fraction better than 33 miles.

Contracts for less than one third of this amount have been let.

GODFREY PICKED

Coast Artilleryman Will Go On City Police Force

Harry B. Godfrey, 24, 640 Franklin-av will be named from the eligible list furnished by the civil service commission, as a member of the police force, announced C. A. Bingham indicated Thursday.

A careful investigation of all candidates is being made by Bingham and Chief Lanker, before making selections for appointment.

Godfrey is a married man and has three children. He served six years as a member of the U. S. Coast Artillery corps. Until recently he had been employed as a machinist in the Lima Locomotive Works. He stands five feet, nine inches and weighs 150 pounds.

Manager Bingham stated that the appointment will be made officially within a few days.

KLINGER DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST LIMA LUMBER COMPANY IS OPENED

Merits of a claim filed by former Judge William Klinger, of Lima, for $2,000 damages from the Swisher Lumber Co. for damage to his property while cutting timber, will be determined by a jury in common pleas court. Hearing in the case commenced Thursday.

Lumberjacks employed by the Swisher Lumber Co., a Lima concern, entered on Klinger's property and cut timber. It was agreed in advance that only trees of mature growth should be cut out, it is stated. Also no mulberry or walnut timber was to be touched by the axe, the plaintiff said.

Klinger told the jury that 25 mulberry trees and 12 large walnut trees were cut.

The commercial value of the timber, he said, together with injury to his property by loss of the trees, amounts to $2,000.

Klinger acted as his own counsel and asked and answered questions while on the stand. The jury were taken to the grove on the West Central-av., north of the city to view the stumps.

FIDO TRESPASSES AND THEREBY WAS CREATED A NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Fido got away from his mistress and trespassed upon the property of a neighbor, thus being the unwitting cause of a neighborhood row that resulted in Elmer Stepleton, 39, of 1534 S. Central-av., being charged with disorderly conduct in criminal court, by Mrs. Mabel Curl, of the same thoroughfare.

She called to the dog and Stepleton is alleged to have mimicked her, whereupon "tart" phrases were hurled back and forth. She filed an affidavit and Stepleton was arrested Wednesday.

He pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct before Judge Emmett Jackson, who fined him $10. The case was held open, however, pending good behavior. Doubling of the fine and a workhouse sentence will be meted out in case of recurrence, Judge Jackson said.

Stepleton wanted to file an affidavit against Mrs. Curl similar to one he was taken up on, but it was not done.

Warning was given by Stepleton that he would make application to have Mrs. Curl placed under a peace bond in one of the local justice of the peace courts.

REWARD PAID BY W. J. BRYAN

Sends Check to Professor For Answering Questions

MORGANTOWN, W. Va.—(Associated Press)—William Jennings Bryan has sent a check for $100 to Dr. R. C. Spangler, professor of botany in West Virginia University, as a reward for answering certain questions on evolution put by Mr. Bryan in a recent address here. Dr. Spangler is undecided whether he will accept the money, because Mr. Bryan took the position he had proved nothing and in the letter accompanying the check declared that "it is worth $100 to me to see a college professor guilty of cowardly evasion."

Mr. Bryan's challenge was to any university professor who could harmonize the Bible and the principles of evolution and Dr. Spangler undertook the task, claiming the reward. The letter carrying the check to Dr. Spangler was addressed to Rev. W. O. Baylor, of Morgantown, and said in part:

"Mr. Spangler's letter does not answer a single question that I asked. I asked that any believer in Darwin's hypothesis applied to man would write out a statement of his belief of the Bible doctrines which in my judgment are inconsistent with Darwinism. Spangler's letter means nothing. He tries to make it appear that evolution is consistent with the Bible, which evolutionists do not as a rule believe. I am not willing, however, that he should claim that I refused him the $100. It is worth $100 to me to see a college professor guilty of cowardly evasion and you will please give him the check and at the same time ask him to answer the questions which I enclose."

Dr. Spangler's letter was returned to Mr. Bryan, who said he would not accept it.

GRANT MEMORIAL DEDICATED

One of Largest Groups of Statuary in World

FIFTEEN YEARS IN BUILDING

Height Exceeded Only by Statue of Victor Emanuel

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—The Grant memorial, dedicated today, is one of the largest groups of statuary in the world.

The equestrian portion of it is said to be exceeded in height only by the statue of Victor Emanuel in Rome. Fifteen years have been required to bring it to virtual completion.

The entire memorial which takes today's dedicatory ceremonies takes its place in the national capital with the soon-to-be-dedicated Lincoln memorial and the great monument which has stood for half a century as a memorial to Washington, in a beautiful view of prominence at the east end of the Capitol grounds facing the Capitol grounds it has been approved by Augustus Saint Gaudens, Charles F. McKim, Daniel C. French and other prominent American artists.

The marble superstructure on which the various groups stand is 282 feet long, 69 feet deep and five feet above the ground. An equestrian statue of Grant stands on a high central pedestal at the west side facing the Washington Monument and Lincoln memorial at the other end of the Mall. Lower pedestals at the north and south ends support massive groups of cavalry and artillery, respectively. The infantry arm is to be represented by bronze bas-reliefs to be placed on the sides of the main pedestal—this being the only part not completed.

The finished work presents an intermingling of action and repose. At each end, upon the flanked exedras, are colossal groups of struggling men and horses in all the paraphernalia and trappings of war. The group at the north end represents cavalry and the group at the south artillery. They face inward and picture a mad rush toward the center, across the wide stretch of marble that separates them from the mounted figure of the great commander in the center. The statue of Grant on horseback surveys it all.

The military leader as portrayed wears the familiar slouch hat and military cloak of Civil War days. His pose is that of a reviewing officer and is said to be a fine conception of that quiet keenness and resolution that marked the man.

OSCAR YOUNG NEW MEMBER OF "Y" TRUSTEES' BOARD

Oscar Young was chosen a member of the board of trustees of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night, in the annual meeting, to succeed T. R. Hamilton, resigned. J. C. Motter, Charles Wood and B. A. Gramm were re-elected.

Reports of heads of departments show progress made by the association during the year. Receipts totaled $47,763 and expenditures $49,388. However, there is due the association for memberships the sum of $3,800. The debt on the building is $59,000. It was reduced but little during the past year.

L. C. Bradshaw secretary, expects to tender his resignation to the board of directors on May 10, to seek a broader field of work.

START WORK MONDAY ON STEINER BUILDING

Ground will be broken for the Steiner building Monday, Ora Green, contractor, announced Thursday.

House movers will have finished the work of hauling away an old frame building by that time, Green said and he will be able to put his crew to work.

Ten to 12 men will be employed at the start, but later a crew of 50 will be used, Green said he would hire only Lima workers, and will give preference to former employees.

Original plans for the Steiner building provided for five store rooms on the ground floor. This has been changed, Green said, and the first floor will be one large room 90 feet deep with 100 feet of frontage.

GERMAN MARKETS COLLAPSE

Panicky Situation Blamed on Increased Mark Value

WORSE CONDITIONS SEEN

Revolt of Working People is Believed Inevitable

(BY R. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK — (Special) — What is going to happen in Germany? What is happening in Germany?

Strange, contradictory, ominous things are happening at this moment. And it looks as if still more unsettling things may happen before long.

This week there has been a violent panicky collapse in Germany's security markets. The reason popularly adduced is that the value of the mark has so substantially increased that securities are worth a smaller number of marks than formerly.

Yet, the increase in the output of marks has been stupendous, staggering, during recent weeks. The expansion exceeded a billion marks every day for some little time! Germany now thinks nothing of pouring from its printing presses in one week as many paper marks as the total in existence before the war.

And yet the quotation for the mark has been rising quite a large percentage. It touched 44-100 of a cent in New York on Monday, whereas less than a month ago it was below 30-100. Here is a rise of fifty per cent in half as many business days!

According to the law of economics the more any currency is inflated, the less value that currency becomes. We have seen this law working out in Russia, Austria, Hungary and other countries. We had also seen it working out in Germany. But now apparently, the greater the speed of Germany's printing presses the more pronounced becomes the recovery in the value of the product.

But there is an end to this kind of madness. In my humble opinion Germany is drifting towards unpleasant happenings.

America, Britain and other countries have been expressing terrible alarm over Germany's ability to produce and export goods at fantastically low prices. And it is true that, measured by dollars or pounds sterling, wages and costs in Germany are ridiculously low—the average wage paid by one American-owned factory in Berlin is today $2.50 per week.

But these low costs are possible only because the working people of Germany are being so grossly underpaid that a revolt is inevitable if existing conditions are allowed to continue. Wages in Germany have not increased one half or one quarter as rapidly as have the prices of the things the wages try to buy. The privations now being suffered by many classes in Germany, including professional people, are beyond the imagination of the majority of people in our own favored land.

But this can't go on forever. It can't go on very much longer. The great mass of the people in Germany, as in any other country, must be able to earn enough to subsist, or trouble finally bursts out. The rank and file of the German people have been extraordinarily docile under the hardships they have been suffering. But when they awaken to a realization of what is what, they will surely kick over the traces. They are not being paid a living wage. So far they have felt that their troubles arose from high prices, not from depreciation of the mark. The populace still cherishes faith in their beloved mark. It is not it that has gone crazy, they reason; it is prices.

Sooner or later it will have to be explained to the German people that their faith in their mark has been misplaced, that they have been deluded by their statesmen, that the mark they know no longer exists, that the marks of today are almost worthless, and that they must be so branded by the government.

Other countries will still have to reckon with German competition in future. But Germany cannot very much longer produce at the unconscionably low costs now ruling. The present position is wholly artificial, wholly unsound, wholly untenable.

Meanwhile, however, you can expect to see American corporations and the business interests of other progressive countries set up plants in Germany to take care of continental business. As one American executive recently emphasized to me, "We cannot pay $6 a day wages and turn out goods which can compete with similar goods made in Germany by fifty cents-a-day labor."

Whether the quotation for marks fluctuates upwards or downwards, don't conclude that things can go on smoothly in Germany until a major operation has been performed.

OLD-TIME REVIVAL TO OPEN AT MEMORIAL HALL
R. S. Lindsay, evangelist, will open old-time revival meetings at Memorial Hall, beginning Sunday night and continuing every night for several weeks, save on Saturday, it was announced Thursday. Lindsay is a member of a league of evangelists, with headquarters in Washington, D. C. The series of meetings is of the interest of no particular creed, he says, but is designed to turn men to the teachings of the Bible. Associated with the evangelist is Mrs. Nellie Pressnell of Findlay, evangelistic sister. A group of gospel workers will also aid. Stenographic song service will be conducted each night, preceding the sermon.

EXPERTS WILL STUDY STATIC THIS SUMMER

Radio fans may expect to hear of the U. S. signal corps and chief of the army radio research, has been making a special study of radio disturbances. He has made several experiments at army stations in Texas, where he found much static interference on which to base his studies.

STUDIES CONTINUED
During the warm days in the northern part of the country, Dr. Cohen will continue his studies and expect to perfect a plan by which atmospheric interference can be eliminated. He is said already to have invented an instrument which will eliminate "strays," or foreign disturbances.

Engineers for private radio manufacturing and broadcasting firms also report activity in the study of static elimination. They are only awaiting the dog days, when static will be so troublesome as to make it almost impossible to receive signals. Then will be the ideal time for their experiments.

Dr. Louis Cohen, consulting engineer, is waiting.

"STATIC" PROBLEM
One of the greatest problems is the elimination of static. That will be at its peak during the warm days.

For this reason government and other radio experts are preparing to make all sorts of experiments with radio apparatus in order to reduce as far as possible this form of interference. Tests have been made in tropical countries, but the engineers say the conclusions formed at these tests may not apply in the temperate zone this summer.

Dr. Louis Cohen, consulting engineer, is waiting.

VARIOMETER IS AID TO SET
(BY R. L. DUNCAN)
Director, Radio Institute of America

Here is a way of increasing the power of a crystal detector set without using a vacuum tube. Substitute a variometer in the aerial circuit for the loose coupler.

Many amateurs have done this and have received telephone and spark signals from a distance twice as great as before.

The variometer represented by No. 1 in the diagram, may be constructed as previously explained or may be purchased for about $4.50.

A variable condenser may be connected in the aerial circuit. This condenser should be of 23 plates or .0005 microfarads capacity.

No. 2 in the drawing is the crystal detector of galena. Always bear in mind that you will probably have to try several pieces of the mineral before obtaining one that is suitable for radio wave detection.

No. 3 is the head phones shunted by a small fixed condenser. These phones should be 2000 to 3000 ohms resistance.

Using an aerial 100 feet long, and the microfarad.

TRIBUTE TO GRANT HEARD 30 MILES

The republic has not forgotten and will not forget.

NEW REPUBLICS
"What of the republic itself? It will not be unseemly to say that American example and American conception of justice and liberty since then have influenced the world little less significantly than Grant's service to the Union-shaped the course of our land."

"A score of new republics have unfurled their flags and democracy has opened new avenues of liberty and made justice more secure. Civilization meanwhile has made such advances that there has seemed a divinity pointing the way. And yet that very civilization, more advanced than entrenched, was threatened by the World War, and in war's aftermath established order has been assaulted and revolution has threatened throughout the world. In our own land the enemies within have been more threatening than those without. Greed and anarchy have menaced. But a calm survey gives every reassurance. Twenty centuries of modern civilization could not have been built on foundations which are false. A century and a half of gratifying American achievement dates from the sacrifices of the founding fathers, and their firm structure was preserved by the patriots whom Grant commanded, and will be held secure by the patriotic citizenship of the republic today and the grateful Americans of the morrow."

Arriving in Cincinnati at 9 o'clock, the president and Mrs. Harding and other distinguished guests were tendered a reception at the Hotel Gibson before embarking for the river voyage. Luncheon was served on the government boat Cayuga on which the presidential party made the journey. Returning to Cincinnati in the evening, the president and Mrs. Harding and a few invited guests will dine at the home of Charles F. Taft, after which the return trip to Washington will be started.

DISARMING WAVE SPREADING

Steps Taken to Include All Latin-America

CHILE LEADS IN MOVEMENT

May be Taken up at Conference in Santiago

(By A. L. BRADFORD)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — First steps have been taken to extend limitation of armament to Latin-America, it was learned authoritatively today.

An agreement between the republics from the Rio Grande to Cape Horn to limit armament is about to be proposed by Chile and already the plan has been informally discussed.

CHILEAN PROPOSAL
The Chilean proposal is that the question of limitation of armament be taken up at the fifth Pan-American conference to be held at Santiago next March.

If the proposal is approved the Santiago conference will be in effect another international disarmament conference.

The Chilean foreign office, it was learned, has communicated to the Chilean embassy here the desire of that government to initiate a discussion of plans for limitation of armament in Latin-America at the Santiago conference. The ambassador, Don Beltran Mattheu, has been instructed to sound out the question here.

Mattheu has already discussed the plan informally with Dr. L. S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union. It is understood Mattheu will shortly propose that the question of extending limitation of armament to Latin-America be included in the agenda for the conference.

NEGOTIATIONS ON
If the commission in revision of program for the conference approves the inclusion of limitation of armament in the agenda, it will then put before the governing board of the Pan-American Union and with unanimous favorable action by that body consideration of the question will be secured. These negotiations are expected to be completed within the next three weeks.

The present views of the Chilean government are that limitation of armament in Latin-America should be achieved by a reduction and limitation of the expenditures by the various countries, this method being preferred to a ship by ship or gun by gun reduction and limitation.

It is not the intention to include the United States in any Pan-American agreement on limitation of armament for fear it would upset this country's relations with the other powers in the Washington naval disarmament treaty.

Another Simplified Discussion of News for School Children and Busy Adults. Today's Topics:

1. TREASON TRIALS 2. GENOA CONFERENCE 3. CHINA'S CIVIL WAR

MINERS ON TRIAL
You have read about John Brown in history. He was one of the leaders of the abolitionists—people who believed slavery should be done away with. He died for this cause.

The present trial at Charles Town is that of several hundred union miners and their friends who marched from Kanawha-co, W. Va., across Boone-co, and to the border of Logan-co, where they were stopped.

On this march the miners took part in several battles with sheriffs, deputies, guards and police. Since both miners and authorities were armed, lives were lost on both sides.

The miners say they started this armed march to protest against unfair treatment by mine owners and the guards these men employed. They say they did not wish to kill anyone.

Now these miners are being tried in the same court house in which John Brown was tried. They are charged with treason, murder, conspiracy and other offenses.

Treason means an act of enmity against the government or failure to recognize one's allegiance to the government.

THE GENOA CONFERENCE
When Germany and Russia were invited to the Genoa economic conference, you will remember, they were looked upon as outcast nations.

The other countries expected them to take anything the other countries might be willing to give them.

But Germany and Russia—especially Russia—have become the most important nations at the conference and the whole outcome seems to depend on what these nations do.

The Russians are now demanding cancellation of all their war debts and a big international loan.

This the allies and the other countries of Europe probably will not permit. They have no money to lend to Russia.

They are, however, willing to give Russia materials to build railways, provided Russia allows them to send men to Russia to see to it that these materials are used for no other purpose.

Russia probably will not consent to this, for its leaders say that permitting such a thing would violate Russia's sovereignty.

Sovereignty means a nation's right to run its affairs without interference from outside powers.

CHINA'S CIVIL WAR
Civil war is now raging in China. Two armies are overrunning the interior provinces and are getting lined up for a great battle.

One leader is General Chang Tso-lin, military commander of the Manchurian armies. His opponent is General Wu Pei-fu, military master of Central China.

General Chang Tso-lin has in his army 95,000 men. They are quartered in three places—in the province of Chih-li, north of Tientsin, and at a point 20 miles south of Tientsin and another point 12 miles southwest of Peking.

General Wu Pei-fu has 75,000 men. Some of them are at Pao Ting-fu in the province of Chih-li, others are in the province of Horan.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., says that for years with rheumatism, many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of endless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allen's, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery thru the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allen's with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will refund your money without comment.—Adv.

WONDERFUL FOR SICK STOMACHS

That's what every stomach sufferer says after taking one or two doses of Dr. Orr's Great Stomach Prescription.

Everyone who tries it willingly acknowledges that it does cure indigestion, and certainly banishes dyspepsia and other Stomach distress almost instantly.

Read this letter from Wm. Starkey, Rock Creek, Ohio:

"I was sick for several years, went to hospital after getting no relief from doctors, and many remedies that I tried, finally to work, and confined to the house. I was advised to try Dr. Orr's Stomach Remedy. I had no faith in anything any more, but I tried it and to my happy surprise, it did me good. I am now perfectly well and, for six months have been working every day in the blacksmith shop, cutting everything I want and in perfect health. It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. Orr's Stomach Remedy."

Money back if Dr. Orr's Stomach Remedy does not do what we say it will and remember that the remarkably speedy is the prescription of a practicing physician who used it with great success in exactly such cases as yours during a period of 30 years. Thompson's Drug Store, Hunter's Drug Store and all good druggists can supply you.—Adv.

Pimples, blackheads and boils—fresh yeast rids you of them

It is well known that pimples and blackheads (acne) and boils are often caused by errors of diet.

Fleischmann's Yeast is now being recommended for these embarrassing and painful skin troubles because fresh yeast corrects the errors of diet which cause them.

The surgeon of one important New York hospital states: "I have used yeast extensively and found it invaluable in curing boils." When 17 cases of pimples were treated with Fleischmann's Yeast at hospitals in New York and Philadelphia the results were remarkable. A typical case was a young man who had suffered from pimples for three years. He ate three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily. In five weeks the eruption had cleared completely.

If you are troubled with pimples or boils, begin at once to correct them by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

Hornell, N. Y.—"I was in bad health but there didn't seem to be any one thing the matter with me. I was tired out all over and it was an effort for me to move. So at last I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and improved every day. I do all my own work now except the washing and do it with ease. I can accomplish as much in a day now as it would have taken me a week to do last winter and I try to get every one I know to take your medicine to build them up. The plays were enthusiastically received by the large audience.

Preceding the plays the Harley Holmes orchestra played a group of the entrancing and the paring of the curtains for the first play revealed a flowery kingdom with large screens, Japanese lanterns, cherry blossoms and peacock feathers attractively arranged for the portrayal of a page from life in old Japan.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:
I HAVE been engaged to a young man for some time. Just as soon as we became engaged he thought it proper that we should tell my mother and his mother. I had nothing to his mother about it and he has never invited me to his home. This makes me feel bad. I feel that every man should be proud of his fiancée and should be glad to introduce her to his parents. I am sure that if I had with the engagement since he keeps it a secret? We are both 22 years of age.

It is natural that you would feel far more comfortable if your fiancé informed his parents of your engagement. It is very strange that he has kept it a secret and yet he may have very good reasons. It is possible that his parents may have interfered in a previous love affair and that now he is trying to safeguard this one by keeping it to himself for a time at least.

It would not be unreasonable for you to ask him why he has not told his parents. If you ask for an explanation he will, no doubt, make known his exact reasons. The fact that he has failed to speak to his parents of your engagement is not sufficient reason for breaking the engagement. If you are really in love with him and care enough for him to justify marriage, you will have faith in his motives.

Will you tell me what to do in my case? My father and mother are separated and my father wants me to go with him. My uncle is helping my mother and I have been looking for work for three years and have not been able to secure any. I have almost lost faith in everyone. Do you think I will be able to secure work before another month rolls by?

If you love your mother and feel that she is in the right, do everything in your power to remain with her. A mother usually needs her children more than a father. You are probably her greatest consolation. Certainly, you should be able to find some kind of work. If it is imperative that you find something to do, you cannot afford to be too exacting in your selection. Talk with Mrs. Julia Simpson, who is at the head of the employment bureau at the Y. W. C. A. Explain your case to her very fully and she will be glad to do what she can for you.

too. And now this business depression. But the slump won't last forever. And we'll manage to get along, until times improve!" My comfort didn't seem to do my husband much good. "Of course, some day," I added, "you're going to be a rich man!" Jack gave me the queerest look. I didn't understand it. But it made me feel chilly all over. He seemed to say that he didn't care whether or not, he ever was a rich man. And I positively shiver to think we may be poor all our days: (To Be Continued) (Copyright, 1922)

Each day your skin is changing

PERHAPS you have always felt that your skin was something you could not change.

You are mistaken; your skin is what you make it.

Every day it is changing in spite of you; old skin dies, and new takes its place. By the right care you can make this new skin what you will.

FIND the right treatment for your special type of skin in the famous booklet "A Skin You Love to Touch" which is wrapped around every cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Skins differ widely in their needs—and the treatment that is best for one skin may fail to benefit another. That is why the famous Woodbury treatments for each different type of skin have been formulated.

By using the right treatment for your skin you can bring about a noticeable improvement in its color, smoothness, texture.

USE Woodbury's regularly in your daily toilet to keep your skin in a fresh, soft, smooth condition. If used persistently, Woodbury's has a markedly beneficial effect on the skin as an organism. It stimulates the pores and blood vessels and gives the skin tissues firmness and tone.

A 25 cent cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap lasts a month or six weeks. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York, and Perth, Ontario.

RADISHES

Tasty Ways to Serve Them

While radishes have little real food value in a muscle building way they do have a distinct place among the mineral and ballast foods. The constituents of the radish are much the same as the turnip.

If you would make radish posies to serve with the salad at a "party," here is the way to do it.

Choose round red radishes, not too big. Wash carefully and cut off the tops to within three-eighths inch from the root end of the radish almost to the stem end. Cut just thru the red skin and be sure that the incisions meet at the root end. Peel each radish-section back as far as the cut extends.

Put in very cold water for two hours. The petals will spring out and curl back. Serve on the salad plate with an olive.

An early variety of white radish is very sweet and crisp, and makes delicious sandwiches.

RADISH SANDWICHES

Wash the long white radish carefully and scrape lightly with a sharp knife. Let stand in very cold water for two hours. Drain and slice very thin. Sprinkle thinly with salt and put between thin slices of white bread and butter. These sandwiches are excellent to serve with a fish salad or lettuce salad with a Russian or cheese dressing.

CREAMED RADISHES

Three cups round red radishes, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 3-4 cup milk, 4 tablespoons water. Radishes were cooked in 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 4 tablespoons grated cheese, 4 tablespoons butter crumbs.

Wash radishes carefully and cut off every bit of stem. Cover with boiling water, add 1 teaspoonful of salt and boil for half an hour. Drain from water, saving 4 tablespoons for the sauce. Put radishes in a buttered dish. Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly.

Add radish water, salt and pepper and cook two minutes. Pour sauce over radishes. Sprinkle with crumbs and grated cheese and bake ten minutes in a hot oven. The cheese should be melted and the crumbs crisp. Serve in the dish in which the radishes are baked.

The long white radishes may be used. These should be scraped and cut in slices to cook.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

A father's lack of confidence in his son's ability caused the tragedy. HARRY HUSTON, to inherit a lumber mill on condition that he maintain a high output. A series of mysterious accidents are preventing this and when young Huston arrives in the Colorado town of Tabernacle, he finds that his superstitious father has been assisted by BATISTE RENAUD, an eccentric French-Canadian who quit the practice of medicine and retired to a cabin to forget the double tragedy of his son's death in France and the murder of his wife. He nurses Huston back to health when the latter's automobile plunges over a cliff. Huston, to do justice to the complete loss of memory, in Batiste's cabin, Houston meets MEDAINE ROBINETTE, a girl who owns the adjoining timber lands. Suddenly, Thayer arrives from the railroad station with AGNES JERDON, a girl who has a mysterious link on Houston.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VI
The woman in the buggy was holding forth her hands to him and he assisted her to the ground.

"Well," she asked, in a sudden fawning manner, "aren't you going to kiss me?"

"Of course," he took her in his arms. "I was so surprised, Agnes, I never thought of you."

"Naturally you didn't." It was Thayer again. "That's why I sent for her. Thought you'd get your memory back when—"

"I've had my memory for long enough—" Houston had turned upon him coldly, "to know that from now on I'll run this place. You're thru!"

Three hours later, the last of the men paid off, Barry Houston approached the door of Batiste's cabin. Barry raised his hand to knock—

—and halted. His name had been mentioned angrily, then again, "Batiste."

"I don't know what it is, Batiste. Fred wouldn't tell me, except that it was something horrible for me to know. I can't be pleasant to him when I feel this way."

She ceased. Houston had knocked on the door. A second later, he entered the cabin, to return Medaïne Robinette's cool but polite greeting.

"I'm afraid I've stayed longer than I intended," she apologized. "It's late. Good night."

Then she was gone. Houston looked at Batiste, but the old French-Canadian merely waved a big hand.

"Woman," he said airily, "peuff! Bat is nothing. Bat will pass. Now, what must Batisee do?"

"At the mill? I wish you'd guard it for me. I'm going to Denver on the morning train to hire a new crew."

"Ah, out. It shall be."

The next evening brought Barry to Denver, and the three days which followed carried with them the weary smell of the employment offices and the gathering of a new crew. Then, tired, anxious with an eagerness that he never before had known, he turned back to the hills.

With his rough-faced men about him, Houston reached Tabernacle, and started the journey to the mill. Into the canon and to the last rise, then a figure showed before him, a gigantic form, running and tumbling thru the underbrush at one side of the road, a dog bounding beside him. It was Batiste, excited, reduced, his arms waving like wind-mills, his voice booming even from a distance.

"M'sieu Houston! M'sieu Houston! Batisee have fail! Batisee no good! Batisee watch for you—he is glad you come! Batiste ashamed! Ashamed!"

They had reached the top of the hill. Below them lay something which caused Barry Houston to leap to his feet, mindful of the jolting wagon, to stand staring with white-tripped hands, to stare with sudden, deadened eyes.

Upon a blackened, smoldering mass of charred timbers and twisted machinery, the remainder of all that once had been his mill!

CHAPTER VII
"Eat was my fault!" The French-Canadian still stared at the ruins. "Bat is all Batisee's fault—"

"I thought you were my friend, Batiste."

"Sacre! I am."

"Then show it! I've got about fifteen thousand in the bank. There's enough lumber around here to build a new saw shed, and money to buy a few saws. And I need help—I won't be able to move without you. But—"

"Out?"

"But," and Barry smiled at him, "if you ever mention any responsibility for this thing again—you're fired. Do we understand each other?"

The next morning Barry went to Denver, and in a week returned to Tabernacle, thence across country to camp.

He found no Batiste but there was something else which held Houston's interest for a moment and which were making a connection with his own.

"What's this mean?" he demanded angrily.

The foreman looked up caustically. "I've told you about ten times," he answered, addressing himself to Batiste. "We're building a connection on our flume."

"Our flume?" Houston gasped the words. "I own this flume and this lake and flume site—"

"If your name's Houston, I guess you do," came the answer. "But if you can read black and white, you ought to know that while you own it, you don't use it. That's our privilege from now on, in cold black and white. As far as the law is concerned, this is our flume, and our water, and our lake, and our woods back there. And we're going to use all of 'em, as much as we please—and it's your business to stay out of the way!"

CHAPTER VIII
The statement took Houston off his feet for a moment; but recovery came just as quickly, a recoil with the red splashes of anger blazing before his eyes, the surge of hot blood sweeping thru his veins, the heat of conflict in his brain. His good hand clenched. A leap and he had struck the foreman on the point of the chin, sending him reeling backward, while the others rushed to his assistance.

"That's my answer to you!" shouted Houston.

"Run tell Thayer!" shouted the foreman, and then with recovering strength, he turned for a cant hook. But Batiste seized it first.

"Here comes somebody!" Batiste's grip tightened about the cant hook and he rose, squaring himself. Houston seized the club and stood waiting a few feet in the rear, in readiness for anyone who might evade the bulwark blows which Batiste evidently intended to set up.

A moment more, and Batiste, with a sudden exclamation, allowed his cant hook to drop to the ground.

"Bat is Thayer and Wade, the sheriff from Montview, and his deputy. Peuff! Have he fool heem too?"

The sheriff pulled two legal documents from his pocket, and unfolding them, had shown Houston, the bottom of each. Barry's eyes opened wide.

"That's—that's my signature," came at last.

"This one's the same, isn't it?" The second paper was shoved forward.

"Yes."

"Then I don't see what you're kicking about. Do you know anyone named Jenkins, who is a notary public?"

"Yes."

"Then look 'em over. If that isn't a lease to the lake and flume and flume site, and if the second one isn't a contract for stumpage at a dollar and a half a thousand feet—well, then, I can't read."

"But I'm telling you that I didn't give it to them." Houston had reached for the papers with a trembling hand. "I don't remember—"

"Didn't I tell you?" Thayer had turned to the sheriff. "There, he goes pulling that loss of memory stunt again. That's one of his best little bets," he added sneering, "to lose his memory."

"I've never lost it yet!"

No—then you can forget things awfully easy. Such as coming out here and pretending not to know who you were. You can't even remember the night you murdered your cousin, can you?"

"That's—"

"See, sheriff? His memory's bad. All the malice and hate of pent up enmity was in Fred Thayer's voice now. One gnarled hand went forward in accusation. "He can't even remember how he killed his own cousin. But if he can't, I can. Ask him about the time when he slipped that mallet in his pocket at a prize fight and then went on out with his cousin. Ask him what became of Tom Langdon after they left that prize fight. He won't be able to tell you, of course. He loses his memory; all he will be able to remember is that his father spent a lot of money and hired some good lawyers and got him out of it. He won't be able to tell you a thing about how his own cousin was found with his skull crushed in, and the bloody wooden mallet lying beside him—the mallet that this fellow had stolen the night before at a prize fight! He won't—"

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
COBALT TOWN
By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

The red-feather pen flew out of Nick's pocket toward Cobalt Town and found its place in the wing of the furious falcon which guarded the gate to King Indig's Palace.

As Nancy and Nick came along the road, queer people gazed at them curiously.

They were the Diddy-eyers with the blue hair.

"Look!" said one, poking his neighbor. "There are some strangers. Who do you suppose they are?"

"They must be important," came the answer, "or they couldn't have crossed the Seven Mountains. I wonder what the black thing is."

"Let's go and ask."

Which they did.

When they heard that it was the record with Longhead's message a wild cheer arose. "Long live the Twins!" they shouted. "Long live King Indig and long live Princess Therna! Long live everybody. We may have a queen soon!"

"But," said Nick, "we don't know what the record says. Longhead may have decided that Princess Therna is to marry King Verdo with the green beard."

It seems that he couldn't have stopped him, staring wonderingly into the distance. A new skyward had made its appearance on the side of the jutting mountain nearest the camp. The jogs were tumbling downward in glow, but steady succession, to disappear, then to show themselves, bobbing jerkily outward toward the center of the lake. A thunderous voice was booming beligerently from the distance:

"You lie—un'stan? Batisee say you lie—if you no like eet, just—what-you say—climb up me! Un'stan? Climb up me!"

Houston broke into a run, racing along the flume with constantly increasing speed as he heard outburst after outburst from the giant trapdoor, intersected by the lesser sounds of argumentative voices in reply.

Faintly he heard a woman's voice, then Batiste's in sudden command:

"Go on—you no belong here. Batisee, he handle this. Go 'long!"

Houston, at last made the turn of the road as it followed the flume, and saw the broad back of the Canadian, squared as he was, half across the road. Facing him were five men with shovels and hammers, workmen of the Blackburn camp. Houston looked more closely, then gasped. It was another flume; they

Keeping a Child's Hair Beautiful

What a Mother Can Do To Keep Her Child's Hair Healthy—Fine, Soft and Silky—Bright, Fresh-Looking and Luxuriant

THE beauty of your child's hair depends upon the care you give it. Shampooing it properly is always the most important thing. It is the shampooing which brings out the real life and lustre, natural wave and color, and makes the hair soft, fresh and luxuriant.

When your child's hair is dry, dull and heavy, lifeless, stiff and gummy, and the strands cling together, and it feels harsh and disagreeable to the touch, it is because the hair has not been shampooed properly.

When the hair has been shampooed properly, and is thoroughly clean, it will be glossy, smooth and bright, delightfully fresh-looking, soft and silky.

While children's hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, it cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

That is why discriminating mothers, everywhere, now use Mulsified coconut oil shampoo. This clear, pure, and entirely greaseless product cannot possibly injure, and it does not dry the scalp or make the hair brittle, no matter how often you use it.

If you want to see how really beautiful you can make your child's hair look, just follow this simple method:

A Simple, Easy Method

FIRST, put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water. Then wet the hair and scalp with clear warm water. Pour the Mulsified evenly over the hair and rub it thoroughly all over the scalp and throughout the entire length, down to the ends of the hair.

Two or three teaspoonfuls will make an abundant, rich, creamy lather. This should be rubbed in thoroughly and briskly with the finger tips, so as to loosen the dandruff and small particles of dust and dirt that stick to the scalp.

After rubbing in the rich, creamy

Mulsified lather, rinse the hair and scalp thoroughly—always using clear, fresh, warm water.

Then use another application of Mulsified, again working up a lather and rubbing it in briskly as before.

You can easily tell when the hair is perfectly clean, for it will be soft and silky in the water.

Rinse the Hair Thoroughly.

THIS is very important. After the final washing, the hair and scalp should be rinsed in at least two changes of good warm water and followed with a rinsing in cold water.

After a Mulsified shampoo you will find the hair will dry quickly and evenly and have the appearance of being thicker and heavier than it is.

If you want your child to always be remembered for its beautiful, well-kept hair, make it a rule to set a certain day each week for a Mulsified coconut oil shampoo. This regular weekly shampooing will keep the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, fresh-looking and fluffy, wavy and easy to manage—and it will be noticed and admired by everyone.

You can get Mulsified at any drugstore or toilet goods counter, anywhere in the world. A 4-ounce bottle should last for months.

COMING OF CONAN DOYLE AROUSES FILMLAND

(By ESTHER WAGNER)
The visit of Conan Doyle to America has already made itself felt in the movies.
The first showing of "Sherlock Holmes," the feature film in which John Barrymore is starred, will be held at the Capitol in New York in two weeks.
A series of 12 two-reel pictures based on the Sherlock Holmes stories of Doyle have been bought by Educational Pictures and will be ready for distribution in several weeks.
These pictures were made in England with English players in the cast. Among the stories filmed are "The Devil's Foot," "The Dying Detective," "A Case of Identity," "The Yellow Face," and "The Solitary Cyclist."
These things indicate the enterprise of the movies, the aptitude of producers and exhibitors in striking "while the iron is hot."

However, Conan Doyle is more in the public eye now for his ventures in spiritism than for his detective stories. Probably no topic is so generally discussed today as spiritism, yet the movies have given but meager attention to stories dealing with the subject.
The outstanding exception is "Smilin' Through," probably the best picture of Norma Talmadge's career, at least far and above anything she has done for the screen in the past two years.
That film deals with the subject of reincarnation. A photoplay, thoroughly prepared and capably acted, dealing with a spiritistic theme should prove of tremendous interest at this time.

Hobart Bosworth In a Sea Tale

WHENEVER you see the name of Hobart Bosworth in a cast, you know that the picture is a sea-goin' one, with barefisted fights 'n' everything. In "White Hands" you have just such a story.
The film opens on the desert, where a young girl is bewailing the death of her missionary father, who was a victim of the dreaded fever. And on the same scene comes Hurricane Hardy, on his way to port and the good ship Wasp, I believe it was.
Instinctively the girl dislikes him, but alone in the desert, what can she do? So she accepts his offer of escort and goes with him to the little village where his ship lies at anchor. The village, it seems, is a licentious, evil little hole, and the sub-titles call the only hotel, "the nest," so it MUST be a terrible place. Here the half-breed owner, a little walt, and a bawling from Boston, fall in love with the girl. You are given just a vague, hazy idea of how the little girl and the weakling got there and why, but never mind, it doesn't matter.

Keith Vaudeville at Faurot Opera House

BEGINNING on Sunday, May 7th, the Faurot Opera House will adopt a Keith vaudeville policy, under the direction of E. J. and F. L. Maire, owners of the Opera House building, which has been leased and operated by Mr. L. H. Cunningham for the past fifteen years.

Active management under Mr. Cunningham will be discontinued on May 1st, when his lease on the popular playhouse expires. W. D. Clark, former manager of the Grand Opera House in Marion, will assume the management, and he is now located in Lima, forming plans for the new policy.
According to Maire Bros, the Keith vaudeville program will be in effect daily until the latter part of June, when the theatre will be closed for an indefinite period, during which time extensive remodeling and renovating will be done. It is the plan of the owners to make the Faurot one of the most artistic and modern playhouses in the city. The present lobby will be torn out and will be greatly enlarged, the present seating arrangement will be changed, new lighting effects installed, and new curtains and stage settings put in.
The Keith acts to be presented at the Faurot will come here direct from Toledo and Dayton, and only

GOOD LUCK— A Milk Product

Our very lives depend on milk. We thrive upon it from infancy. It promotes our growth and, when growth is fully attained, preserves our health.

Thousands of gallons of pure, full-cream milk are used daily in the churning of GOOD LUCK—the nourishing spread-for-bread.

It comes to us fresh from the model dairy farms of the Fox River Valley. Thus GOOD LUCK—abounding in healthful butter fats and vitamins—incorporates the best qualities of the richest milk obtainable.

The health-sustaining value of GOOD LUCK is further increased by the addition of meat oils during the process of churning. These oils, extracted from the fats of corn-fed beef cattle, have nourishing qualities, similar to those of the butter fats of milk.

Thus GOOD LUCK is more than a tempting spread-for-bread. It is an unequalled combination of life-giving foods in the most delicious form imaginable.

ROWLAND'S

SPORT CORES

One rule that irritates the guy who swings a golfing club is just "replace the sod."

YESTERDAY'S HERO — Art Fletcher hit a homer with two on and gave the Phils a 6 to 4 win over the Giants.

Sam Jones, buster in the ninth inning when the Athletics scored three runs and beat the Yanks 4 to 1 after they had won seven straight.

Dave Westbay, Lima right-hander, has signed to pitch with the Celina baseball club this season.

Due to an injured hand, caused Monday night in knocking out Clyde Kelly at Kokomo, Rod Young, local welterweight, will not be able to fight Nick Leonard of Akron in Wagon.

The strings came off his racket and his playing went unsteady, because the mishap rattled him and he, too, became unstrung.

Jack Dempsey has received a big offer from a British syndicate and may fight Georges Carpentier in London if the Frenchman whips Ted Lewis, Jack Kearns announced.

After two more workouts of a mile and a quarter and a mile, Morich, the great three-year-old, will be shipped to Louisville on May 7 to get ready for the Kentucky derby.

On the protest of Ty Cobb that he was using an illegal delivery, several balls used by Dave Danforth, Brown pitcher have been forwarded to Ban Johnson. Cobb claims he cuts the ball with his finger nails.

McFarland shot games of 234, 208 and 185. Nobody else broke into the coveted list last night except Stoll and Dale, who tied for fourth place in the doubles by upsetting the man-agers for a 1121.

RUETHER MAKES 'EM SIT UP AND LOOK

NEW YORK — "Dutch" Reuther, who is not acting like a southpaw this season, is doing his best to prove that a pitcher can be some account at the bat. The reformed Brooklyn pitcher is also making about seven National League managers wonder where their think apparatus was last winter when Wilbert Robinson told them they could have Dutch for the asking.

Reuther always could hit and he is connecting better than ever this season. Robby is planning to make an outfielder out of him to make use of his bat, when his arm goes bad. If he didn't happen to be looming up as the best southpaw in the National League now, he probably would be working in the gardens every day.

Dutch, however, is not the only pitcher in the majors who so far discount the old theory about the weakness of a pitcher as to be used as a pinch hitter. There are about a dozen batting pitchers who never have a man passed in front of them to get a weak batter up. Burleigh Grimes, Rube Bressler, Alexander and Carlson are among the best batters in the National League. Sutherland, Mays, Bush, Shawkey and Johnson bat better in the American League than a lot of players who are in the game every day.

DETROIT JINX FOR MAIIS

(BY BILLY EVANS)

Detroit is the jinx team of the American League for Pitcher Walter Mails of the Cleveland club.

Not since his entry into the American League has Mails been able to turn in a victory against the Tigers.

The experience that Mails has had against the Detroit club is very similar to that of Cy Morgan when he pitched for the Philadelphia Athletics in the days when Mack's clubs were winning pennants.

Morgan, a very effective spitball pitcher, simply couldn't win against that old slugging aggregation of Cobb, Crawford and Company.

There is no wiser manager in baseball than Connie Mack, and he tried in every way possible to remedy the fault. After using Morgan about a half-dozen times or more against Detroit with the same result — his ultimate removal from the box — Mack saw the folly of such a policy.

Morgan, strangely enough was always successful against the Cleveland team. On all western trips of the Athletics Morgan was excused from pitching against the Tigers. Against the Cleveland team he was always selected to open and finish the four-game series.

Knowing he was ineffective against the Tigers, and very effective against Cleveland, Mack played the hunch of not starting him in Detroit, and using him twice against Cleveland. And it was not an unusual thing for him to twice beat Cleveland in the same series.

USE TENNIS BALLS TO GAIN CONTROL

Tennis has become a contributor to baseball.

Detroit's pitchers are going about this spring armed with tennis balls. Every pitcher is supplied with at least one.

When the pitchers are at leisure they spend their time squeezing the tennis balls.

The idea is to strengthen their hands and wrists.

Ty Cobb borrowed the idea from boxing. Several prominent boxers use this method to develop hand and wrist power.

Detroit's pitching staff is "all shot" this spring and Cobb decided upon the tennis ball idea to bring his hurlers into form.

INDIANS DROP ONE TO SOX

CLEVELAND — The Indians out-batted the Chicago White Sox 12 hits to nine, but lost to the visitors by a 7 to 3 score. Jim Bagby's lack of control was partly responsible for the Clevelanders' downfall? He gave six passes.

Hitting of Stephenson, who gathered two doubles and a triple, featured. The score:

FOUR PITCHERS ASSAULTED — WASHINGTON — Four Boston Red Sox pitchers were pummeled by the Senators for 19 hits and 15 runs, giving them a clean sweep of the series. Penneck, Karr, Dodger and Fullerton were the pitching victims. The score was 15 to 6.

HOMERUN STREAK CHECKED — ST. LOUIS — Kenneth Williams' homerun streak of six circuit clouts in four days was stopped when Cole twirled Ty Cobb's Tigers to a shut-out victory over the Browns, 2 to 0.

BLUE DRAWS FIRST PENALTY — Bert Blue, first baseman of the Detroit club of the American League, is the first major league player to be suspended.

In the second series of the season Blue became involved in an argument with Umpire Moriarty over a called strike. It is needless to add that the umpire won the argument. Blue was sent to the club house.

Before taking his departure, Blue elected to say a lot of choice things to Umpire Moriarty. When these remarks were repeated to President Johnson, Blue was set down for three days.

REDS REVIVE AGAIN

CINCINNATI — After eight consecutive defeats, the Reds revived Wednesday afternoon and took the stars out of the fierce St. Louis Cards by the whitewash route. Eppa Jephth, Rixey, Moran's exagitated slabman, turned in a notable 3 to 0 victory.

The Reds increased a one-run lead in the eighth when Dixie Walker retired and they garnered two more counters at the expense of Ed Pfeffer.

BABE DROPS TIGHT ONE — CHICAGO — Babe Adams of the Pittsburgh Pirates lost a close decision to Grover Alexander yesterday in ten innings by the score of 4 to 3. Hollocher's single and Grimes' third hit of the game gave the Cubs the winning run.

RING ANNEXES A GAME — PHILADELPHIA — Jimmy Ring won a 6 to 4 game from the New York Giants. The slugger for 12 bingles, he held the visitors safe.

DOGGERS BEAT FILLINGIM — BOSTON — Dana Fillingim held the Brooklyn Dodgers runless until the seventh when the visitors fell on him and Joe Oeschger, winning 10 to 1.

COPS TO MIX WITH FIREMEN — Lima policemen and firemen are the latest to suggest a diamond clash for the purpose of increasing the charity fund for the social service bureau. The city guardians will put on a game soon, rival managers of the baseball clans report.

Formidable arrays of talent have been lined up. The policemen's team will be permanent and firemen expect to organize a team at each engine house. Fire fighters had the edge on the cops last year and the latter are out for revenge.

Ray Blair, for three years a Three-I leaguer, also given a try-out with Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers, is on the police team. Other noted sluggers have been signed. Matthews, star slabman for the fire ladders, will be seen in action. The lineup:

QUESTIONNAIRE

By BILLY EVANS

Is the use of the spitball under the ban in the minor leagues as well as the majors? What is the exact status of the major league pitcher who still uses that style of delivery? What is the penalty for the use of the spitball by some pitcher who is familiar with the delivery, but has no right to use it? — B. E.

THE spitball is under the ban in most of the professional baseball leagues.

There are some minor leagues that still permit the use of that style delivery.

Such action is really a mistake on the part of the minors permitting it, and a greater mistake for a pitcher to use it, even if having the right to use it.

The minor leagues hope to sell their stars to the majors. The majors are the goal of every minor league player. A pitcher who uses the spitball in the minors is killing his chances to show in the majors, since that delivery is barred by both big leagues.

When the majors adopted the rule it was decided that all pitchers then in the league that used the spitball should be permitted to continue its use, but no new pitchers could adopt it.

The use of the spitball by a pitcher who has no such right calls for a 10-day suspension in the majors.

There are about 15 pitchers in all who have the right to use the spitball in the two major leagues.

INDEPENDENTS CONFIDENT

In spite of the fact that they will be bumping up against the champions of the Ontario league, Lima's Independents are confident of annexing the Saturday and Sunday games here at the expense of the London, Canada aggregation of ball tossers.

Manager Bernie Halloran figures Buzz Wetzel's crew hasn't a thing on the collection of stars, and with the addition of Wilbur Fish to the outfield, the Independents should win in a canter.

A record-breaking crowd is expected Saturday afternoon, when the Rotarians and Knights of Columbus clubs will play a preliminary seven-inning game.

MODERN RECORD SET BY WILLIAMS

(BY BILLY EVANS)

WHILE Babe Ruth, home-run king, is sitting in the grandstand as a mere spectator, Kenneth Williams of the St. Louis Browns is hogging the sporting spotlight as slugger extraordinary.

Williams' feat of hitting three home runs in one game on Saturday, April 22, sets a modern baseball record.

Ruth's best home-run performance in a single game is two home runs.

It has been 25 years since any player made three home runs in one game. On Sept. 26, 1897, Jake Beckley, now dead, accomplished such a feat.

Only 11 players in the history of baseball have made three home runs in one game.

In four games Williams has hit six home runs. Babe Ruth is the only player to boast such a record. Making it last season.

During the season of 1882 Muldoon of Cleveland made five home runs in three games, as did King Kelly of Chicago in 1884, and Babe Ruth of New York in 1921.

A desire to emulate the deeds of Babe Ruth has made Williams a hitter of the slugging type.

While Williams has always been known as a hard hitter in baseball, up until last season he usually hit more balls on a line, rather than lifting them over the fence.

I was sitting on the bench in St. Louis on the day that I believe Williams shifted from the line hitter to the slugger.

The day previous Williams had been retired on three towering fly balls that just failed to clear the fence. Sitting on the bench Williams was bemoaning his tough luck.

"If you would take a healthy cut at the ball like Ruth you would be pushing him hard for home-run honors," remarked one of the players.

"If you would start pulling those balls on the inside into right field, you would hit 15 or 20 home runs on this park every year," said another teammate.

TEAMMATES ADVISE — Several other St. Louis players offered advice. All of them lauded

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER
Let us reason together. As a rule you make a general clean up spring and fall is that the truth? From dollar to dollar. Now let us consider your bed room. Here you spend one-third of your life. Should it not be as sanitary as can be made? Let us sleep on feathers. Years without anything done to them except shaking up occasionally and maybe hung in the sun. Pillow ticks sometimes get so full of dirt and soiled you have to leave covering so that people might not see them, but then bugs on the bed for another period. Just cover up the imperfections that has absorbed in them from years of use. We make them as sanitary as any other part of the room.
